Literacy lesson plans Primary 3 Term 1 Organising the classroom for effective learning

This is the second in a series of six literacy lesson plan publications, designed to be used throughout the three academic school terms.

Introduction

The quality of education is a key element to socioeconomic development in any society. Perhaps the most critical element in ensuring quality of education to output. The majority of is the teacher. Good teaching methodology, with the right textbooks. will quickly provide a good platform for a quality education system in Kano State.

The challenges are sometimes overwhelming when vou have 5.335 schools with over 2.3 million children and 46.643 teachers. The Kano State Ministry of Education carried out a series of baseline surveys to assess classroom teachers. the role of the head teacher and the level of pupil learning outcomes.

The findings in most cases were alarmingly poor, with not much difference between aualified and unaualified teachers with respect teachers were themselves victims of an education system that was in a serious downward slope.

Following this, the Kano State Ministry of Education, the State Universal Basic Education Board (SUBEB) and local government education authorities (LGEAs), supported by the Education Sector Support Programme in Nigeria (ESSPIN), embarked on a series of reforms that will help strengthen schools.

This work has focused on classroom teaching skills in particular how to make teaching child-centred and the organisational structures needed for SUBEB and LGEA staff to provide effective support and advice to primary schools.

With many school leavers unable to read or write. a specific focus has been on improving the teaching of basic literacy and numeracy. To support this, Kano State has developed a benchmark for assessment and carefully designed literacy and numeracy lesson plans for Primary 1—3 teachers. These plans provide a step-by-step quide to teachers, while ensuring children become active learners.

The lesson plans, however, are not sufficient. Structures and processes have also been put in place so that teachers are continuously supported by both the State School Improvement Team and the I GFA-based school support officers.

We are sure that within a short time of these lesson plans being introduced, children's learning abilities will improve considerably. The materials will also enable teaching and learning to be more exciting – an important element in all classes, but in particular at the primary level. We are confident that these lesson plans will raise standards and improve the quality of children proceeding to higher levels of education.

We commend all those who have produced these lesson plans and trained our teachers to use them. We offer thanks to the UK Department for International Development (DFID) for its ongoing support to education reform in Kano State through its ESSPIN programme. Let's make every Kano school an improving school.

Organising the classroom for effective learning

Your classroom is a flexible space. You can change it to suit the learning activities.

Pupils take part in many different activities during each week, eg: games, role plays, circle discussions, group tasks, copying from the chalkboard, using teaching aids, working with a partner, working alone. All these activities need different ways of organising your classroom, eg:

Tables arranged around the edge of the room so there is a space in the middle for games, songs or role play. Pupils can see each other and this helps communication. Tables arranged in rows so that the pupils can see the chalkboard. This is useful when they need to see something you have written or drawn on the chalkboard.

Tables arranged in groups. This helps pupils to talk together and share ideas. They can see each other clearly and can easily work with one set of number cards or one sheet of paper to produce a joint end product.

Each time you start the day you should think about the activities you need to do and decide if your classroom needs to be arranged differently. Work with the other teachers in your school and cluster, your head teacher and school support officer (SSO) to discuss different ways of arranging your classroom for learning.

Group and pair work

Group and pair work is the basis of a learner-centred classroom, they allow pupils to work together:

To discuss, solve problems or to play learning games.

To find their own way in their learning.

The main benefits of group and pair work are:

More pupils can be active at one time. Pupils can talk and listen to each other, or work on a problem together.

The teacher can walk around the room to monitor what groups and individuals are doing, and can stop with each group to help them with their task. Spending more time with the pupils helps teachers better understand what individual pupils know and can do. Group work is also one of the best ways of teaching social skills to pupils. While working in groups, pupils are learning a variety of skills including:

Co-operation.

Taking turns.

Listening to others.

Sharing.

Working harmoniously with others.

Solving problems.

The development of these life skills is a major reason why group and pair work is undertaken in most modern classrooms. Literacy lesson plans Primary 3

Adawi asked. 'First of all, I clear and dig the land. Then I plant the seeds. After a few weeks the plants start to grow. I must look after the plants carefully. When the plants are big, flowers grow. When the flowers die, the cotton boll forms.'	 'Do you pick the cotton boll?' asked Adawi. 'Yes, I do', answered Grandfather. 'I pick the cotton bolls and send them to the gin.' 'What's the gin?' Adawi asked. 'It's a place where they have machines to take the cotton from the boll. Then you can make cotton thread for cloth.'

minutes

Whole class teaching

Flash the revision word cards to the class.

Hold up the 'wa' cards and choose some pupils to read them.

WC

Read the 'wa' story with the pupils.

Read the questions and ask pupils to answer them.

"Why was Mr Amedu upset?" "What was Mrs Amedu doing?" "Where was the wallet?"

'What else did Mrs Amedu find?' 'What did Mr Amedu do with his watch?'

Tell the pupils to write the answers in their exercise books.

Special thanks go to:

In 2008, Kwara State carried out a Teachers' Development Needs Assessment for all primary school teachers. This showed that most teachers in Kwara State did not have strong literacy and numeracy skills. The Kwara State Government responded by developing a strategy to support existing teachers and improve new teachers' pre-service training.

These literacy and numeracy lesson plans, developed by the Kwara State School Improvement Team, were part of that strategy. Two years after introducing these plans alongside the training and support programme, Kwara State began to see strong improvements in teachers' teaching skills and pupils' learning outcomes. The Honourable Commissioner and staff of the Kwara State Ministry of Education and Human Capital Development, as well as the Kwara State Universal Basic Education Board for their support and valuable input and for agreeing to share these plans with other states.

The UK's Department for International Development (DFID) and the DFID-funded ESSPIN programme for their input, focus, guidance and constructive criticism throughout the development of the plans.

Thanks also go to the teachers of Kwara State who have used these plans to bring about change in their classrooms.
